DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
GROVER CLEVELAND,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
THOS. A. HENDRICKS,
OF INDIANA.

THE Democratic Convention nominated Jacob Mullanbach for President, and Mullanbach accepts in a stirring letter.

REPORT has it that Hon. J. C. Dugan, greenback candidate for Congress in this District, has withdrawn from the race.

Ohio gave 34,000 Republican majorities in 1880. Any less than that next Tuesday will be disastrous to Blaine.

Ohio gave a Republican majority of 34,000 in 1880, and yet many Ohio Democrats are hopeful of carrying that State next Tuesday. We can't believe it, but if they do, Cleveland will have a walk over in November.

HOPE, the "Big Republican" of Tennessee, claims that Reid will be elected by 40,000 majority. Can it be possible that Tennessee Democrats are so late in the race? If so, they will have to carry the old Volunteer State.

Is the Republican carry Ohio by any ordinary majority next Tuesday, Democrats need not feel discouraged. If, however, they capture West Virginia, they will capture a State the Democrats depend on carrying.

Many of the most intelligent correspondents think that Blaine's personal canvass in Ohio and West Virginia, will injure the Republican vote. He has received large crowds, but many have gone away displeased.

Not one Democrat in every ten thousand is in favor of free trade, and yet the Republicans attempt to make this the issue of the Presidential campaign, to divert attention from the terrible record of the Republican party.

The Wickliffe Journal throws out the following straw to the Democrats:

"Let Smith's political anchor in early boats here in the District. We have four knaves and a draw, Turner and Stone, Houston and Thornhill, and we may draw the 4-1."

The Republican State Committee has decided that Hon. Henry Houston is the regular Republican nominee for Congress in this District, and that James Thompson is the chairman. Houston was nominated by Waller's convention, and happy withdrew from same. We suppose this will slaughter Thornhill, the colored candidate.

The Republican National Committee has established a branch headquarters at Nashville, supplied with abundant munitions of war, to carry Tennessee for Blaine and Reid. If the old democracy of the "State of Oshun" could get to understand this effort of the Republicans to buy a majority in the old Volunteer State, the Democratic majority in this county would annihilate the natives.

SHOW THE BODIES.
The bulk and body of Republican voters in the United States are probably just as honest as their Democratic brothers; but the Republican leaders have had control of the Government, finances and books for 24 years, and during that time many corrupt men have crept into office and had to do with their books. This fair minded Republican knows the Democrats who represent one-half the people and taxpayers want to examine these books. Republican leaders will not expose Republican rascals.

The Greenbackers of Pennsylvania have decided that the Democrats provided the elections are to be equally divided, make a fusion with the State of Pennsylvania out of the hands of the Republicans.
